

My Awesome Year

Christmas eve, two thousand twelve, a exiting year. The little elf last stay was very near. We have a plate of cookies for Santa, and it was ten o'clock at night. I could not wait for the morning to come, Christmas morning in fact! It was not only Christmas, it was also Jesus's birth day. So when I woke up, I saw all the present there, just waiting to be opened. When we opened all the presents I got a air soft kit. So me, dad and brothers went out to the woods and played air soft. And we play for over two hours straight. We got done around ten o'clock in the morning. When we were done, we went inside, we all sat back and had family time with our grand parents.

September fifth, two-thousand thirteen. I woke up, and forgot it was my birthday. Then I was surprised with gifts. I got lots of good things DVDs of Duck dynasty, legos, books, some clothes and other things. Then I got out my legos and watched Duck dynasty. It was really awesome, and then my mom let me skip school. Because I am home schooled. Later that day about everyone said happy birth day to me I was finally fourteen wow! where have the times gone by.

My grand parents gave my family Carowinds passes. I could not tell if I was exited or scared. because I heard stories of Carowind and how scary the roller coasters are. but I guess I was up to the challenge. I was taken there, and saw the intimidating giant roller coasters. I felt bad for the people on the coasters, they seemed like they were being tortured in there. To start off the adventure, me and my family went on a little coaster. When it was our turn, we all stepped into the car and, we went up the hill. I was kind of scared. But then we went over the hill, and I almost screamed. It was so much faster than I expected, but then before I knew it, the ride was over. "That was great" I said, but then I had to conquer a scarier coaster. The Afterburn. I was on my way, when I got there it was super scary. And I have to admit it, I cried a little bit. When I was in line, the suspense was killing me and my throat was burning more than ever!

I was in the coaster and getting ready for the ride to start. When I was locked in I knew there was no turning back. It started and we slowly went up hill. Then we almost went over and then the car dropped it seemed like I was going to die. I was swooped up, and was twirled about a million times and under ground. Afterwards the ride was done. I loved it and I wanted to do it again.

It was almost two thousand and thirteen. There is something about new year eve, that gets me fired up. I do not know what my new years Resolutions, but I guess its ok then I watch the ball was about to go down. ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five four, three, two one! Happy new year! Its two thousand thirteen and so long two thousand twelve! I could not believe its already two thousand thirteen! I went so fast.
