

On March 5, 1770 British redcoats killed five civilian men. Depictions and reports of the event, notably the colored engraving produced by Paul Revere, further heightened tensions throughout the Thirteen Colonies. Note: The initials CJA are for Crispus Attucks.

Coffins were made for the victims of the massacre with engravings or initials of the dead.

C.J.A. are the initials of Crispus Attucks, the first African-American killed in the Revolution.
