

Adjectives and Antonyms

Read each sentence and underline the adjective. Then rewrite the sentence using the antonym or opposite of the adjective from the word box. For example, if the original sentence was The windows are not clean, clean would be the adjective and dirty would be its antonym. Your new sentence would be The windows are dirty.

cold loud down wet fast happy
long hard young broken

This book is not short. _____

My brother is not quiet. _____

Our radio is not working. _____

That race was not slow. _____

The girl is not sad. _____

The man is not old. _____

The air is not warm. _____

The sun is not up. _____

The concrete is not soft. _____

The towel is not dry. _____

Adjectives and Antonyms

Read each sentence and underline the adjective. Then rewrite the sentence using the antonym or opposite of the adjective from the word box. For example, if the original sentence was The windows are not clean, clean would be the adjective and dirty would be its antonym. Your new sentence would be The windows are dirty.

cold loud down wet fast happy
long hard young broken

This book is not short. The book is long.

My brother is not quiet. My brother is loud.

Our radio is not working. Our radio is broken.

That race was not slow. That race was fast.

The girl is not sad. The girl is happy.

The man is not old. The man is young.

The air is not warm. The air is cold.

The sun is not up. The sun is down.

The concrete is not soft. The concrete is hard.

The towel is not dry. The towel is wet.