

Adjectives and Synonyms

Read each sentence and underline the adjective. Then rewrite the sentence using the synonym or similar word for the adjective from the word box. For example, if the original sentence was The windows are dirty, dirty would be the adjective and filthy could be a synonym. Your new sentence would be The windows are filthy.

freezing noisy fantastic soaked quick
delighted lengthy scratchy delicious glistened

This road is long.

My music is loud.

The road is wet.

That car was fast.

The baby is happy.

It is cold outside.

The sandpaper is rough.

That concert was excellent!

The snack was yummy.

The diamond sparkled.

Adjectives and Synonyms

Read each sentence and underline the adjective. Then rewrite the sentence using the synonym or similar word for the adjective from the word box. For example, if the original sentence was The windows are dirty, dirty would be the adjective and filthy could be a synonym. Your new sentence would be The windows are filthy.

freezing noisy fantastic soaked quick
delighted lengthy scratchy delicious glistened

This road is long. The road is lengthy.

My music is loud. The music is noisy.

The road is wet. The road is soaked.

That car was fast. That car was quick.

The baby is happy. The baby is delighted.

It is cold outside. It is freezing outside.

The sandpaper is rough. The sandpaper is scratchy.

That concert was excellent! That concert was fantastic!

The snack was yummy. The snack was delicious.

The diamond sparkled. The diamond glistened.