

ING and ER and ED

Sometimes we want the first vowel to say its name, like with biting. We want the I to say its name. If we added a double T, what would it say?

bit-ting – That’s not a word!

Read these examples with NO double letters, so all of the first vowels say their name.

bite	ing	biting	biter
ride	ing	riding	rider
mine	ing	mining	miner

mope	moping	moper	moped
vote	voting	voter	voted
rope	roping	roper	roped
hate	hating	hater	hated
rate	rating	rater	rated
rake	raking	raker	raked

Please continue with this lesson on the next page.

read	reading	reader
lead	leading	leader
bead	beading	beader	beaded
leap	leaping	leaper	leaped

Reading is fun.

I voted. I like the leader.

Riding fast, we feel the wind go past.

The miner is at his home near the mine.
