

Spelling

Use the words in the box to fill in the blanks. Use each word only once.

Homophones		Other words		Verb spotlight
here	hear	young	morning	fly
bear	bare	pulled	angles	flew
way	weigh	magnify	cone	flying
				flies

Which other words have more than one syllable?

Which of the homophones means this place?

Which can mean listen?

Which of the homophones is an animal?

Which means naked?

Which of the homophones can tell where to go? Which finds out how heavy?

Which other word is past tense?

Write the remaining two other words.

Use a verb spotlight verb in a sentence that ends with an exclamation point.

Spelling

Use the words in the box to fill in the blanks. Use each word only once.

Homophones		Other words		Verb spotlight
here	hear	young	morning	fly
bear	bare	pulled	angles	flew
way	weigh	magnify	cone	flying
				flies

Which other words have more than one syllable?

magnify morning angles

Which of the homophones means this place?

here

Which can mean listen?

hear

Which of the homophones is an animal?

bear

Which means naked?

bare

Which of the homophones can tell where to go? Which finds out how heavy?

way

weigh

Which other word is past tense?

pulled

Write the remaining two other words.

young cone

Use a verb spotlight verb in a sentence that ends with an exclamation point.

(answers will vary)
