Reading 2
This course in book form.
Course Description:
Students will grow in their reading ability, reading poetry, short stories, and full-length novels. Students will practice retelling and summarizing stories as well as reading aloud in front of audiences. They will demonstrate comprehension through reading response questions. Vocabulary will be introduced from the literature and practiced for retention.
Reading List:
Poetry by Walter De La Mare, James Riley, Christina Rossetti
Books: The Adventures of Jimmy Skunk and The Adventures of Old Mr. Toad by Thorton W. Burgess; The Bobbsey Twins at Snow Lodge, Hope
Short stories: Beatrice Potter stories, Fifty Famous Stories, and a variety of other short stories

Day 1

1. If you didn't get here through My EP Assignments, I suggest you go there and create an account.
2. Listen to Horton Hatches an Egg by Dr. Seuss. Horton has to be very patient, but he is rewarded in the end. Learning takes a long time just like hatching an egg, but there is a great reward for your patience in the end! (If the video disappears, here's another.)
3. While you are listening, you could draw a picture of the story.
4. What did you think of Horton?
5. What did you think of Maisy?
6. What did you think of what came out of the egg?

Day 2

1. Listen to some poems by Mother Goose.
2. The first poem, "Curly locks, curly locks," is about a man asking a woman (with curly hair) to marry him. He promises her that she won't have to work. What does he say that she'll do? (Answer)
3. The next poem is about two sisters arguing. What are they arguing about? (Answer)
4. The next poem is a description of a pair of tongs. (It's very small, just two lines.)
5. The last poem is the most famous. What happens? (Answer)

Day 3

Allinonehomeschool.com
1. Listen to poems by Mother Goose.
2. What is the little boy doing in the first poem? (Answer)
3. What is he supposed to be doing? (Answer)
4. To be “single” means you are not married.
5. What lesson does the last poem teach? (Answer)

Day 4

1. Listen to poems by Mother Goose.
2. This first poem doesn’t make any sense! What does it say he burned his mouth on? (Answer)
3. What is happening in the second poem? (Answer)
4. The last poem is not very nice, but the Bible does say that those who marry will have troubles, husbands and wives.

Day 5

1. Listen to these two poems by Mother Goose.
2. Draw a picture about one of these poems or tell someone about what happens in both of them.

Day 6

1. Read poems 04, 05, and 06 by Walter De La Mare..
2. Why is Tim so tired? (Answers)
3. What does he think is so ugly in I can’t Abear? (Answers) (Here is a picture of a butcher shop.)
4. What do you think it means that he can’t “abear” the butcher shop? (Answers)
5. What happened in Some One? (Answers)

Day 7

1. Read poems 08, 10, and 11 by Walter De La Mare.
2. This is a picture of Banbury cakes in poem 08. Do you know what a cupboard is? (hint: What words do you see in cupboard?)
3. What is The Cupboard about? (Answers)
4. What is The Window about? (Answers)
5. The widow in number 11 may not have a lot of money, but why is she not really poor? (hint: second to last line) (Answers)
6. There is a long list in this poem of different kinds of weeds. Usually you think that weeds are for pulling and throwing away, but weeds can have a lot of uses and can even be eaten. Here are a few pictures of some of the things listed. Comfrey Hawksbit Clover
7. Can you find any of those where you live?

Day 8

1. Read poems 16 and 19 by Walter De La Mare.
2. What animals does he say can’t see him? (answer: mole, bat, barn owl)
3. In fact moles can see, they just see very poorly. Bats can see, but they can’t see well in the dark which is when they like to fly. Owls can see by day, but they are usually asleep because they like to be out at night as well. His science isn’t the best in this poem!
4. Summer Evening paints a word picture. Can you picture the scene? Draw the picture he describes in this poem.

Day 9

1. Read poems 20 and 39 by Walter De La Mare.
2. What is the oak’s “green crest”? (hint: What part of the oak tree is green?)
3. Where are the star’s thrones set? (hint: Where are the stars?)
4. What words in this poem rhyme? (Answers)
5. In number 39 what sounds does the woman hear now that she is old and there is no longer music and singing in her house? (Answers)

Day 10

1. Choose one of these books to listen to:
   - Sophie’s Masterpiece
   - Stellaluna
   - Harry the Dirty Dog
   - The Rainbow Fish
   - The Tooth
   - Guji Guji
   - Romeow and Drooliet
   - A Bad Case of Stripes

Day 11

1. You are going to listen to a poem called, When the Frost is on the Pumpkin, by James Riley.
   - The line that is repeated in this poem is, “When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder’s in the shock.”
   - Pumpkin is spelled punkin on purpose. Say it the way it is written. The poem is written with a sort of accent. That’s how the farmer speaks.
   - Fodder is feed for animals. Here is grain in shocks. The grain has all been harvested, collected. It’s ready to feed the animals.
   - What time of year is it when the harvest is all collected and there is frost on the pumpkin? (answer: It’s the end of fall.)
1. How does the poet feel about the end of harvest? (Answers)
2. What are some lines that show how he feels? (Answers)

Day 12

1. Read poems 01 through 04 by Christina Rossetti.
2. In the first two poems what is she describing? (Answers)
3. In poem 03, where are the two places she digs for flowers? (Answers)
4. Where will the flowers grow and where will flowers never grow? (Answers)
5. Here is a picture of a linnet in poem 04.
6. What story does the bird tell? (Answers)

Day 13

1. Read poems 08, 09 and 10 by Christina Rossetti.
2. The picture I showed you on Day 12 is of a linnet on a bough, a tree branch. The poem talks about two linnets, two birds. One is outside in a tree and one is in a cage. The poet asks which is luckier? What is the poet’s answer? (Answers)
3. Poem 09 is about rainbows. When it says “bow,” it is talking about a rainbow. What does it say you need to have rainbows? (Answers)
4. Poem 10 talks about violets. Here is a picture of violets. Turf means the ground or grass. The poet smells something sweet. The wind blows the smell her way. At the end of the poem she says that violets make the turf sweet. What does that mean? (Answers)

Day 14

1. Read poems 16, 17 and 18 by Christina Rossetti.
2. In poem 16 she describes how a flint rock just looks like a rock, but it really has a special purpose.
3. Here is a picture of what happens when you strike flint rock. What words in the poem describe this picture? (Answers)
4. There are many things and people in this world that look ordinary but serve a special purpose.
5. In poem 17 it says that even the coldest May brings what? (Answers)
6. When it is summer in America, it is winter in Australia. America is in the north, what we call the northern hemisphere, and Australia is in the south or southern hemisphere. Also, you know that the sun rises and sets at different times everyday.
7. In the summer in America the days are long, the sun gets up early and goes down late so the nights are shorter. At the same time in Australia the opposite is happening. So when the days are long, the nights are short, and when the days are short, the nights are long. Right?
8. The lark is known for singing in the morning, so when the sun is up early, the lark can sing for hours and hours.
9. The nightingale is known for singing at night. The poem says that even though the nights are long, they seem short because of the nightingale’s singing. Does that mean she likes or doesn’t like the nightingale’s song? (Answers)
10. Here is a singing lark and a singing nightingale.

Vocabulary

1. Admire means to think well of someone or something, to have a good opinion of something, to respect someone.

Day 15

1. Read poems 20, 21 and 22 by Christina Rossetti.
2. What is poem 20 about? (Answers)
3. Draw a picture of the caterpillar in the poem.
4. What is the poet feeling in the first stanza (section) of poem 21? (Answers)
   ○ A stanza is a section of a poem. There’s a space between each stanza.
1. What is the poet feeling at the end of the second stanza? (Answers)
2. What words rhyme in poem 22? (Answers)

Day 16

1. Read poems 24 and 25 by Christina Rossetti.
2. These poem teach. What is taught in poem 24? (Answers)
3. What do you think is being taught in poem 25? (hint: You would know if you lived in England.) (Answers)

Vocabulary

1. Use the poem to try to figure out the answers. Which is worth the most? the least? pound, shilling or pence (At the time the poem was written, these are what were used in England for money.)
   ○ What will you give me for my pound?
   ○ Full twenty shillings round.
   ○ What will you give me for my shilling?
   ○ Twelve pence to give I’m willing.
   ○ What will you give me for my penny?
   ○ Four farthings, just so many.

Allinonehomeschool.com
○ Australia and Canada use their own types of dollars.

Day 17

1. Read poems 26, 27 and 28 by Christina Rossetti.
2. How many cherries did their family eat? (answer: $1+1+2+6 = 10$)
3. Make a calendar page based on this poem for whatever month it is right now.
   - Example: It says that February is dripping wet, so you would write February at the top and draw rain drops and puddles. Make sure to add in the date numbers in the right boxes.

Day 18

1. Read poems 29 and 34 by Christina Rossetti.
2. Both of these poems are about different uses of words. Like the peacock has eyes but can't see. Here is a picture of peacock feathers that look like eyes.
3. The poet is observant, pays attention to what's around her. I know you don't understand everything she points out, but find one in each poem and explain what it means to a parent or older sibling and then draw a picture of it. Example: The head of a pin is the top round part, but of course it doesn't have hair. You could draw a human head on the top of a pokey pin.

Day 19

1. Read poems 38, 39 and 40 by Christina Rossetti.
2. Poem 40: If you don't know what a ferry is, what clues are there in the poem to help you guess what it is? (answer: “across the water” and “boatman”) What is a ferry? (Answers)
3. How much does a ferry ride cost in this poem? (Answers)
4. Poem 39: What does it mean that the milk is coming when the cows come home? (Answers)
5. Here are pictures of drake, brake and rushy lake. Look at the pictures and read the poem again. Now can you picture what it's talking about?
6. Poem 38: What is happening in this poem? First, what is a swallow? (look for clues in the poem like “fly away”)
7. When does the swallow leave and fly away? (Answers)
8. When does the swallow come home? (Answers)
9. What is happening in this poem? (Answers)

Day 20

1. Read poems 45, 46 and 47 by Christina Rossetti.
2. What does the poet compare to a boat sailing? (Answers)
3. What does the poet compare to a bridge? (If you don’t know, use the clues. What bow looks like a bridge from the earth to the sky?) (Answers)

4. What is the message of poem 46? (Answers)

5. What is the message of poem 47? (Answers)

Day 21*

1. Read The City Zoo. You can also listen to it. It mentions the sport rugby (It’s similar to football and is played in Britain. The story mentions a scrum. It’s not really important, but here is a video showing what a scrum is in the sport, rugby.) Also, an accountant is someone who keeps track of the money for a business and when the hippo is wallowing in the mud it just means he’s lying down and relaxing in the mud.

2. What problem did the zoo have? How did they solve the problem? Tell a parent or older sibling. (Answers)

3. What kind of person was the zookeeper? (hint: look at the beginning of the story) (Answers)

1. Either read this story to someone and ask someone else to act it out as you read or ask someone to read the story and you act it out. Or, both take turns acting it out. I used boys but you could read it Jacqueline and Johanna and use feminine pronouns if you like. (Read off the screen or use the printed version on the Old Mr. Toad vocabulary sheet from day 46.)
   ● Jack ambled down the street, humming a song, smiling in the sun. He was on his way to his friend's house for a birthday party. Suddenly he stopped. He had forgotten a present! Now he started feeling very anxious. What was he going to do? He decided he better go get a present. He hastily returned home and searched for a present. He didn’t know what else to do, so he grabbed his stack of baseball cards and put them in a paper bag. He ran out of the house and down the street. He was huffing and puffing and had to sit because he was so feeble from running so fast so far. Joe was already at the party.
   ● (The actor has to be Joe now.) Joe took one look at Jack's bag and felt very smug. “That's your present?” he said scornfully. “What? Did you bring him your lunch?”
   ● (Now the actor can be Jack again.) Jack was indignant. He knew it wasn’t the best looking present, but he still thought it was a good present.

Allinonehomeschool.com
• (Now the actor can be JOE.) Soon their friend started opening presents. He opened Joe’s first. It turned out that their friend already had one. Joe was upset that he wasn’t more excited about it. He opened Jack’s bag last. His eyes grew wide. He jumped up and started saying how great it was. He couldn’t believe Jack had given him so many. Jack was really happy he had brought them, but Joe was envious that Jack had brought the best present.
